INTELLIGENCE DEFINITIONS WORKING GROUP

14 MARCH 1978

1. The Working Group accepted and approved newly submitted candidate definitions of Positive Intelligence, from RMS/OPP, and Intelligence Producer and Intelligence Collector, from CIA.

2. The Group considered and accepted several communications terms submitted by NSA which help clarify the language of cryptology. Another group of clarifying definitions dealing with communications and other forms of cover and deception was accepted as shown in the glossary.

3. The Army and NSA members both requested time to further consider the definition of TEMPEST. The Group was unable to agree that it had correctly described the relationship between TEMPEST and Compromising Emanations.

4. The definitions of the USSID System was merely added to the previously entered definition of USSIS.

5. The Working Group will attempt to complete all definitions at its next meeting. It will then begin a final review of all terms for language and format consistency, preparatory to initial coordination in the Community.

6. The next meeting of the Working Group will be at 1330, 21 March 1978, CHB Room 5S09, with Official Information on the final NSA list.
